

General Knowledge Quiz 13

1 Which British port offers the shortest ferry route to Dublin, Ireland?

---

2 The most northern McDonalds restaurant in the world is in which country?

---

3 The London School of Economics (or LSE) was founded in 1895 by which organisation?

---

4 Actress Audrey Hepburn was born in which country?

---

5 What type of animal is Bagheera in Jungle Book?

---

6 Which hill in the City of London is the site of St. Paul's Cathedral?

---

7 In the nursery rhyme, who found Lucy Locket's pocket?

---

8 What is a funeral director or undertaker known as in America?

---

9 Which company performed Gilbert and Sullivan's works for over a century?

---

10 Which road tunnel under the River Mersey links Liverpool and Birkenhead?

---

11 Which fruit has the same name as a language?

---

12 What name is given to a young domestic pigeon under four weeks old?

---

13 What was the largest naval battle fought during the First World War?

---

14 In which modern day country was the centre of the Inca Empire located?

---

- 15 What is the name of the natural region of tropical wetlands in the southern part of Florida?
-
- 16 What name is given to a collective community in Israel that was traditionally based on agriculture?
-
- 17 Which main thoroughfare in New York City is known as the heart of the American theatre industry?
-
- 18 What does a digitabulist collect?
-
- 19 Westminster Abbey is mainly which style of architecture?
-
- 20 Which French word denotes a premium cut of beef used for steaks?
-
- 21 Which brand of soft drink was advertised as having 'the totally tropical taste'?
-
- 22 Which famous artist, specialising in portraits, was born in Plympton, Devon, in 1723?
-
- 23 Where would a stevedore work?
-
- 24 As of 2017, which company is the UK's biggest service area operator with 58 motorway service stations?
-
- 25 Who did Charles Darwin replace on the £10 note in 2000?
-